You are responsible for your own safety and the safety of other road users. Always obey the highway code whether riding with the club or on your own. Always make sure your bike is mechanically sound and well maintained. The club accepts no responsibility for damage or injury caused during club activities. We recommend you sign up with Welsh Cycling which provides riders with 3rd party insurance. Some club activities involve strenuous physical workouts, always consult a doctor before undertaking such activities. Please see the club website for current rules and regulations.
